

Fruit Varieties

Regala

Appearance: An early red sport of the Gala family, this variety can be distinguished by its bold, red blush appearance.

Taste: With thin skin and crisp sweet flesh, Regala is a very special early dessert apple with excellent appearance and eating qualities.

Pacific Rose™

Appearance: A large sized new variety developed in and unique to New Zealand, with a rosy pink to red blush over a yellow background.

Taste: Creamy coloured, firm, fine textured, sweet, very crisp and juicy.

Gala

Appearance: A premium dessert apple with a pink to red blush on a pale yellow background.

Taste: Its sweet, juicy flavour, crisp flesh and thin skin give Gala a special taste.

Royal Gala

Appearance: A red selection of the Gala family, this variety can be distinguished by its bold, red striped appearance.

Taste: With thin skin and crisp sweet flesh, Royal Gala is a very special dessert apple. Its outstanding appearance and eating qualities have made Royal Gala one of the world's premium varieties.

Golden Delicious

Appearance: Clear and golden.

Taste: Popular eating and cooking apple with sweet, juicy flesh.

Red Delicious

Appearance: Delicate texture, with a dark red striped skin and distinctive elongated shape.

Taste: Very sweet flavour and particularly popular throughout Asia and other Eastern markets.

Fruit Varieties

Granny Smith

Appearance: The striking, bright green skin of the New Zealand Granny Smith hints at the deliciously thirst-quenching flesh within.

Taste: New Zealand Granny Smith, characterised by its crunchy, crisp and moderately acidic flesh, is certainly a favourite for most.

Jazz™

Exciting new variety exclusive to ENZA

Appearance: Bright orange-red stripes over a yellow background.

Taste: Very firm and crispy, juicy and sweet, with an aromatic zing.

Pacific Queen™

Appearance: Bright red blush with russeted lenticels and stem end.

Taste: Very sweet, rich flavour. Very crisp and juicy.

Fuji

Appearance: Fuji is a large, red striped apple with a pink background.

Taste: The pink to red blush and exceptional sweet flavour with crisp flesh, give New Zealand Fuji a special and very enjoyable taste.

Braeburn

Appearance: An attractive, partially red coloured striped variety developed in New Zealand. This large sized apple has become the major export variety to Europe.

Taste: An exceptional new taste with a clean, semi-sweet flavour. Braeburn's crisp, juicy flesh makes it an outstanding New Zealand apple variety.

Pink Lady®

Appearance: As the name suggests, the apple has a distinctly pinkish to red colour with a pale yellow background.

Taste: A creamy white flesh with an aromatic and moderately sweet acid taste.

Fruit Varieties

Pacific Beauty™

Appearance: An early season variety with a pink to bright red blush on a cream background. Developed in New Zealand.

Taste: A crisp, sweet eating apple.

Doyenne du Comice

Appearance: A large pear with yellowish-green skin which often has a red blush.

Taste: The flesh is fine, juicy and sweet with a melting texture. This is certainly a premium eating pear.

Beurre Bosc

Appearance: A medium-large pear with a characteristically long neck, cinnamon-brown russet skin and fine, melting flesh.

Taste: Beurre Bosc is an excellent eating, crisp pear.

Taylors Gold

Appearance: Closely related to the Doyenne du Comice, Taylors Gold is a medium-large pear with a completely cinnamon coloured russet skin. Developed in New Zealand.

Taste: The yellowish-white and melting flesh is very juicy.

Hosui and Nijiseiki - Asian Pears

Appearance: Asian pears often known as Nashi pear. It is a medium sized fruit with a smooth glossy, yellow-green skin.

Taste: Asian pears have become popular because of their refreshing, crisp, sweet and extremely juicy flesh. They should be refrigerated before eating to enhance their flavour and texture.
